work. Frank McCabe had the first string of two-year-olds very early on the track. Several of the string did nice work, covering half a mile in 56 seconds. The work of the older horses was reserved until Mr. Dwyer arrived. Declare and Long Beach had a nice pipe-opener before he arrived to fit them for the trial. The pair afterwards covered a mile and a furlong in 2.06.1-4. The Brooklyn Handleap horse had little difficulty in disposing of Long Beach after they half traversed a mile. Patrician covered a mile in 1.82, going with sreat dash and fire, and being well held throughout. There was enough breeze through the stretch to stop an ox at this time.

Kennel and Monte Carlo had a corking trial over a mile in 1.22. Refore they were stopped by Trainer McCabe they set a terrific pace, and the trainer was very wrathful at the boys, who forgot themselves and thought they were an actual race.

Leonwell covered six furlongs in 1.20. Roller covered a mile in 1.55. Armitage and Prince George did good work sies.

At Sheepshead Bay Charles Littlefield, Jr., gave his splendid string beneficial work. Beansey, as usual, led the three-year-olds, and a more preposses-sing-looking lot could not be seen. The fillies by Bowcaidine, Royal Hampton, Duke of Magenta and Fresno are above the average. The entire string were led at a lively pace by Beansey and covered five furlongs in 1.10.

Sylvie, the speedy two-year-old that run such good races last year, covered the same distance in 1.08. The big string of two-year-olds next received Mr. Littlefield; attention. Honsparte and the sen All colt alone are a pair sufficient to do credit to any stable. The entire string covered five furlongs in 1.10. string covered five furlongs in 1.12. The youngsters are hard in flesh and muscle, and by the time the campaign commences they will be as fit as the proverbial fiddle.

Messrs, Keene's string did rattling good work. The Brooklyn Handicap candidates, Hornpipe and Assignee, have done well. The former covered the handicap distance in 2.18, going very smoothly. Assignee covered a mile and a furlong in 2.07. The work of the three-year-olds has been the best seen on any of the tracks on Long Island.

Bir Galiahad and Anna C. covered a mile very easily in 1.491-4. Irish Reel and Agitator in about a couple of seconds longer time. The brother to Freeland, Dangerous, the brother to Reporter, and Bowling Green, covered a mile in 1.51-2.

This lot comprise a beautiful string of three-year-olds, many of them being maidens as yet, not having run last a year. The two-year-olds in the stable are being pushed to the five-furlong distance, and some of the pairs have done as well as 1.06.

PRESIDENT JOHN M. CRANE.

That Mr. Hiltner is assuming the duties that naturally are those of the President is evident from a statement sent to depositors this morning and signed by Mr. Hiltner. It is as follows: Tou have deutlies seen an account in the public press of the Aymar theft, which is correct as far as most involved are given.

The net loss of $15,000 is the outcome of a severe examination of the accounts of the bank, and should be accepted as finst. The loss might have been suppressed and the guilty party allowed to manage, ment I will withhold nothing that interests either stockholder or depositor.

The net loss of $15,000 is the outcome of a severe examination of the accounts of the bank, and should be accepted as finst. The loss might have been suppressed and the guilty party allowed to make the prisoner was taken before Commissioner Shelids.

sioner Shields.

Lawyer Angel, who had accompanied Aymar throughout, pleaded not guilty for him, and demanded an examination on Tuesday, April 30. Assistant District-Attorney Mott assented and suggested that bail be fixed at $15,000, as this "misdemeanor" against the United States statutes involved a penalty of not less than five years and there were besides other charges against Aymar.

Mr. Angel protested. He said that $30,000 bail was considered sufficient for Aymar's brother-in-law. Sam Seeley, who had stolen $350,000, and $2,000 should be ample in this case.

But the Commissioner agreed with Mott, and by 3 o'clock Aymar was on his way to Ludlow Street Jall in company with Antonio Sperloza, the Italian barber counterfeiter, convicted some weeks ago, but not yet sentenced.

During all the proceedings Aymar struggled to be careless, but his feint at bravado was a pitiful failure, while the woe of his son, a manly young fellow, was a sad sight. The lad looked as if all the light of hope had gone out of his life. Two or three friends of the defaulter were present also.

One of the most astounding facts was anything wrong with Bookkeeper Aymar's accounts, according to Lawyer Angel.

Aymar was still confined in a cell at Police Headquarters this morning. He is to be taken to the Tombs at 2 o'clock this afternoon for his examination before Police Justice Voorhis.

A Washington despatch says that the discovery of this last defaication in the bank will cause an inquiry to what extent the failure to discover it earlier is due to the negligence of the National Bank Examiner.

Mr. Kimball also explained that the pass books of the bank's depositors were not examined by him or his assistants at the time of Seeley's defalcation. This work, he said, had been done by the cierks of the bank.

There will be three special bouts between the following boxers: Eddle Connell and have O'Connel, six rounds at 115 pounds: Tourney Gaffiner and George Siddons, six rounds at 127 pounds, and Steve Bloom and Jim Holmes, six results at 140 pounds.

Owen Zeigler, of Philadelphia, and Charley lichring, of Baltimore, will come together in an eight round bout at 131 pounds in Baltimore next Thursday evening. Soily Smith has signified his willingness to meet the winner of the Sweeney-O'Keefe 'Go' or will take on any one at 115 or 122 pounds at the New Manhattan Athletic Club's next meeting. It is possible that Johnny Dunn will secure Jack Downey of Brooklyn, to meet Smith. The pair would make an interesting bout.
